Theme

Hiking Cevennes Heaven is a fine short tour and an excellent introduction into walking in Unesco's most recent World Heritage site. It encapsulates a multitude of themes and is designed to educate and stimulate the grey matter while providing the physical with a much-needed work-out.

Hiking Cevennes Heaven introduces you to the steep slopes and narrow valleys of an area of extraordinary diversity, with a strong self-identity that expresses itself through universal themes: terre de refuge and man's struggle for self sufficiency and the mastering of nature. The tour comprises a high standard of accommodation and three full-day walks, with the option to shorten the second [middle] day to the morning only.

4-night Programme<sup>1</sup>

Day 1

Alès.

Arrive at the Gateway to the Cevennes and enjoy an evening in this interesting market town. Night in Alès.

Day 2

Cevennes Panorama. [12 miles-18 kms, +520ms, -565ms.]

Taxi transfer to the start of the trail. You walk to Mialet across the mountain crest with outstanding views eastwards over the entire Garrigue as far as Mont Ventoux in Provence and beyond to the Alps; northwards to Mont Lozere, south-westwards to Mont Aigoual and southwards to Pic St Loup and the Mediterranean.

You can also visit The Protestant Museum en route. Night in Mialet.

Day 3

Mialet to St Jean du Gard. [light option: 6 miles-9.5 kms, + 160ms, - 155ms; or moderate option: 11.5 miles -18 km, + 315ms, - 310ms.]

Today you have two walk choices: walk only the morning, along the Gardon Valley and follow the GR 61 to St Jean, or a more challenging route via a fine 'crête.' And there's plenty to do on arrival: steam train to nearby Anduze, museum of Cevennes culture, castle, cafes and restaurants...not to mention the heated out-door swimming pool. Night in St Jean du Gard.

Day 4

Corniche des Cevennes. [10 miles-15kms, +/- 485ms.]

The grande finalé: climb an ancient drovers' trail, walked by Robert Louis Stevenson in 1878, to a memorable 360 degree panorama. Second night in St Jean du Gard.

Day 5

End of Tour. Breakfast and onward journey. Bon retour and departure options include bus [not Sundays] or taxi to Ales or Nimes. Ask us for details.
