Taste of Camino Francês

Experience a bite-sized chunk of the classic GR65

Tour Highlights

- ☞ Choose between a hotel-led or a chambres-d'hotels-led format to suite your preference.
- ☞ Enjoy a slice of the 'best of' Europe's Classic Pilgrimage trail.
- ☞ Explore the cultural heritage of two of France's most inviting ancient regions: La Margeride and Aubrac.
- ☞ Hike the mythical 'UNESCO' World Heritage section from Nasbinals to St Chely across the Aubrac Plateau.

Fact File

- ✓ 4-night, self-guided, inn-to-inn walking tour through rural France crossing from Languedoc-Roussillon into Midi-Pyrenees.
- ✓ Graded as a moderate challenge - you average 12½ miles-20 kms a day.
- ✓ Convenient starting point of Aumont-Aubrac for ease of access.
- ✓ Start any day from 1st April to 8th October.
- ✓ Luggage transfers throughout.

Theme

Taste of Camino Francês is your chance to sample a carefully-selected, three-day segment of the world renowned 'Compostella Trail.' Whilst the whole route is a special human experience indeed, the Via Podiensis is by far the most popular of the 'Four French Ways.' The most-trumpeted section is from Le Puy-en-Velay to Conques and this 4-night tour lets you taste the best slice of that excellent gateau.

So whatever your reasons are for wanting to join the Camino Club, here is your chance to see what all the fuss is about whilst savouring the ambiance over three extremely varied days of walking and conversing with kindred spirits from the four corners of the human world.

Your common humanity unites you, complemented by your desire to walk moderate distances, sleep in private rooms in welcoming accommodations and feel spoilt by your hosts attention to detail. So cramped conditions and snoring neighbours are out; as too is the obligation to sport a shell on your rucksack and collect the full set of official or un-official stamps on your 'credential passport' to prove you have really been there and duly suffered along The Way.

You do your Camino your own way, meet whom you wish to meet, spend precious time with people of your own ilk and enjoy the memorable countryside in the companionship of new acquaintances who may just become lifelong friends.

What you share in common with everyone else along this section of The Way, pilgrim or not, is the following:

- ☞ a journey - alone or in a group of friends of your own choosing;
- ☞ encounters - with other humans [companionship], unique buildings [cathedrals, temples] objects [relics, tombs] and rituals [stories, legends];
- ☞ Exploration - experience the different and the new;
- ☞ Arrival at a destination - your own 'Grand Finalé', and
- ☞ Returning home a better, changed or 'enriched' person.

There you have the essential ingredients of our Taste of Camino Francês tour: an opportunity to enjoy the best of what the Way of St James has to offer in two accommodation-led formats to suit your preference. What differentiates this trip from other 'Camino' tours is the emphasis on accommodation excellence. You only get one bite at the cherry, so here's your chance to do it in style. And once bitten, we trust you'll be back for more in the not-too-distant future.

Taste of Camino Franc s: four-night tour itinerary

[All distances, times and elevation figures are approximate] <sup>1</sup>

Day 1 Arrive in Aumont-Aubrac.

[The town is the best entry and exit point along the Le Puy to Conques section] See below for travel options.

Night in Aumont-Aubrac - hotel or chambres d'hotes.

Day 2 Aumont-Aubrac to Nasbinals.

[16½ miles-26½ kms, approx. 7½ hrs, +340ms -190ms]

You commence along an emblematic white sandy trail en route to La Chaze de Peyre, with its fine communal oven, past the charming Chapelle de Bastide before you arrive at Les Quatre Chemins and a welcome beverage. By now the forest has given way to enormous expanses of rolling green and cattle-laden pastures speckled with blocks of granite and low, dry-stone walls.

Night in Nasbinals - hotel or chambres d'hotes

Day 3 Nasbinals to St Chely d'Aubrac.

[10½ miles-17 kms, approx. 4½ hrs, +135ms -490ms.

A World Heritage-rated walk blessed with more fabulous rolling and patchwork steppes, with a mosaic of colours composed of over 1300 species of indigenous flora. Descend to the picturesque village of Aubrac past the white porcelain statue of the Virgin Mary. A fine lunch-spot can be enjoyed in the village square near the Tour des Anglais before commencing your descent to the Boralde Valley and the charming St Chely.

Night in St Chely - hotel or chambres d'hotes.

Day 4 St Chely d'Aubrac to St C me d'Olt or Espalion.

[10 miles-16½ kms, approx. 4½ hrs, +200ms -650ms or 16 miles-25½ kms, approx. 6½ hrs, +245ms -840ms.]

The final morning's walk through classic countryside has P.M. options to suit you:
i. Amble round arguably the most appealing of all the villages along the trail - the walled cit  of St C me d'Olt, located on a beautiful stretch of the River Lot, whose unpretentious style has avoided the over-commercialisation of some stop-overs, or,
ii. Continue onto Espalion via either the 'low route' that hugs the river Lot or the more challenging 'high route' that sees you clambering up to a hill crest with fabulous views from the statue of the Virgin Mary all the way along the LOT Valley from Espalion back to St C me. Either way, the trails are considered worthy enough for another UNESCO inscription.

Night in either St C me d'Olt [chambres d'hotes] or Espalion [hotel].

Day 5 End of St James' Way tour.

Breakfast followed by check out. Please enquire about return transfer to Aumont-Aubrac or Le Puy. Bonne continuation and we hope to see you next year.

Comfortable Hotels and Superior guest houses

“Carefully-selected accommodation based on knowing our partners well.”

We have literally combed the trail to find the best accommodation that the St. James' Way has to offer so that you enjoy the over-night stay as much as the hiking. We are thus delighted to bring you two options from which you can choose according to your own personal tastes:

1. Taste of Camino [Guest house-led]

sets out with the express aim of placing our customers in fine guest houses along the trail. Bedrooms are all, of course, en suite and comfort levels are high. The objective is to allow you to meet interesting travellers along The Way, who value the same comforts as you, and spend time with hosts who know the area and its history and enjoy sharing it with their guests.

The human factor and the personal touch is thus writ large in this option. Your hosts are accustomed to welcoming Anglophones into their homes although, as with anything in life, your extra effort will be handsomely rewarded and so practicing some French [however rudimentary] is highly recommended.

The homes are all on the trail itself. One of your hosts does not provide an evening meal, simply because the village in question offers a multitude of local options to suit most tastes less than 100 metres away.

All three chambre-d'hotes have something unique to offer to their guests, both in terms of the style and warmth of the accommodation but also in the insight it provides into life at each place the particular stages along the trail.

As a result of COVID-19, there is no longer a suitable chambres d'hotels in Nasbinals. We thus place you in the centrally-located two-star hotel.

2. Taste of Camino [Hotel-led] allows you to experience the trail by day whilst focussing the evenings on you, your family and close companions. You set the social agenda in the welcoming environment of your hotel bar, restaurant or room. You stay in two 3-star hotels and two 2-star hotels.

Our commitment is to bring you your preferred accommodation option, Guest house-led or Hotel-led, in its purest form. However, we cannot guarantee that corresponding accommodation will always be available at each stage and so this cannot be a precondition of your booking. Where we are unable to accommodate you in the desired chambres d'hotels or hotel stay on a particular night, you will be placed in the equivalent hotel or guest house, respectively, with a corresponding price adjustment.
